

The Virginia Inhalant Abuse
Prevention Coalition invites you to

The Inhalant Abuse Prevention Awareness Institute

March 12, 2008
8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.
Stonewall Jackson Hotel
Staunton, Virginia
Cost: $55 before February 15
$65 after February 15

Topics will include:

- ◆ The Tragedy of Inhalant Abuse—Sgt. Jeff Williams from Cleveland, Ohio will speak about inhalant abuse's devastating impact on his family.
- ◆ Inhalant Abuse Basics—Dr. Robert Balster from the Institute for Drug and Alcohol Studies at Virginia Commonwealth University will provide an overview of inhalants, including what they are and why and how they are abused.
- ◆ Inhalant Abuse Incidents—Dr. Mark Kirk of the University of Virginia Medical Center will provide information on the toxic effects of inhalants and what to do when you discover someone abusing an inhalant.
- ◆ Communities in Action—Representatives from three communities will share how they've addressed the problem of inhalants.
- ◆ Teaching Kids about Inhalants—Learn principles for teaching young people about inhalants, using information from the updated and expanded Inhalant Abuse Prevention manual.

Registration

Handled through Rockingham Memorial Hospital.
Call 800-433-4580 or register online at rmhonline.com. Select Classes and Events from the main menu and then Event Calendar.

Hotel Information

$94 plus tax
Call the Stonewall Jackson Hotel at 540-885-4848 for reservations.
Request the conference rate.

CEU's will be available for an additional $10 through James Madison University.

Approved for SACAVA hours

For additional information, contact Marta Szuba at 540-942-6757 or szubame@ci.waynesboro.va.us.