

“Implementing the New Local Assessment Guidelines”

September 23 – Richmond Downtown Marriott

A workshop for school division leadership teams including superintendents, board members & administrators

Co-sponsored by ShowEvidence and NWEA

8:00 – 8:45 am	Registration & Breakfast
8:45 – 9:00 am	“How did we get here and what is the intent?” – Steven Staples, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Commonwealth of Virginia
9:00 – 9:45 am	“What are the requirements for local school divisions?” – Shelley Loving-Ryder, Assistant Superintendent for Assessment & School Improvement
9:45 – 10:00 am	Break
10:00 – 11:00 am	“Purpose-driven assessment for local school divisions” – Andy Hegedus, Senior Research Manager, Northwest Evaluation Association
11:00 – Noon	“Alternative Assessments: what are they; how do they differ; what makes a good assessment?” – Tony Petrosky, Associate Dean, School of Education and Co-Director, Institute for Learning, University of Pittsburgh
Noon – 1:00 pm	Lunch and Panel Discussion: “Resources in Virginia and how can we collaborate to provide quality professional development?” – Panel Discussion: Laurie McCullough , Executive Director, VASCD; Billy Haun , Chief Academic Officer, VA DOE; Ginny Bowerman , Executive Director, Virginia School-University Partnership
1:00 – 1:15 pm	Break
1:15 – 2:15 pm	“Unique Approaches to Developing and Implementing Alternative Assessments Divisionwide” – Break-out Sessions: Newport News City Public Schools Goochland County Public Schools Albemarle County Public Schools Virginia School-University Partnership
2:15 – 2:30 pm	Break
2:30 – 3:30 pm	Repeat Break-out Sessions